Model (1)

1. Which one of the following statements about clomiphene citrate is false?

a) Osteoporosis
b) Dysfunctional uterine bleeding.
c) Oral contraception
d) Liver disease

2-Find the true phrase regarding Raloxifene:

a. Selective estrogen receptor blocker

b. May induce hot flashes

c. May produce thrombotic complications

d. Prophylaxis of postmenopausal osteoporosis

3. What is the etiology of benign prostatic hyperplasia?

a. Degenerative

b. Hormonal

c. Inflammatory

d. Neoplastic

4. Which of the following is a precancerous condition?

a. Complex hyperplasia with atypia

b. Complex hyperplasia without atypia

c. Simple hyperplasia with atypia

d. Simple hyperplasia without atypia

5. Lutenizing hormone:

a. Is secreted from corpus luteum.

b. Stimulates growth of follicles.

c. Is secreted from posterior pituitary gland.

d. Stimulates ovulation

6. Proliferative phase of uterine cycle is under the control of:

a. LH.

b. Progesterone.

c. Estrogen from corpus luteum.

d. Estrogen from growing follicles

7. The optimum pH range for the Trichomonas vaginalis is:

a. Above 4.9 unit.

b. Below 4 unit.

c. From 4 to 4.9 unit.

d. None of the above

8. The right testicular vein drains into which vascular structure?

a. Inferior vena cava

b. Superior vena cava

c. Right renal vein

d. Pampiniform plexus

9. 1-year old boy with undescended testes was given a hormonal treatment to correct the problem. Which of the following hormones was most likely administrated to him?

a. Cortisol

b. Human chorionic gonadotropin

c. Follicle stimulating hormone

d. Leptin

e. Testosterone

10. Primary syphilis is best diagnosed by:

a. Clinical signs and serum antibody testing.

b. Clinical signs and dark field microscopic examination.

c. Growth on culture media and Gram stain.

d. Gram stained film